

Blue Skies Family,

Our important mission continues into our 7th Warrior Weekend to Remember (WWTR), honoring our nation's combat injured Purple Heart Warriors and Gold Star families of fallen heroes. We provide bonding, healing and life enriching experiences, and we couldn't have come this far without you. In fact, we honored a special Blue Shield, fallen law enforcement family, for the first time in 2019. The impact of our organization reaches beyond just our annual WWTR. Blue Skies has supported hardship cases for our families, including a home makeover, travel costs to allow some warriors to be with family over the holidays, Christmas Miracles, Mountain Bikes for deployed alumni and other things.

Our Warrior Testimonials

"We did so many amazing things this past weekend and I'm beyond grateful for the people I met. I have done nothing but rave to my family since I got home." Katie Luff, Gold Star Wife

"The amount of close connections I made with people in four days is astounding. I just can't even imagine life before WWTR. My inspiration. My new beginning. Thank you." Zac Ruttman, USAF Purple Heart

Your support of our mission is vital. Now, more than ever, we need to show these individuals and families that we are a community that supports them and recognizes their sacrifice for our freedom. We know without a doubt that our formula for bonding and healing for our honored guests is priceless, and that it changes lives.

We are writing today to ask you for your renewed support of the Blue Skies Mission. On the back page of this letter, you will find 2020 sponsorship opportunities. We have also enclosed a sponsor form for the year. Please take some time, review them, and contact us with any questions you might have.

Blue Skies!

David Hart, Founder

Our Sponsor Testimonials

*“It’s hard to describe what a powerful experience Warrior Weekend is. Bringing the Gold Star families back into the fold and letting them just talk and play (and laugh and cry) is such a healing experience for both them and the Warriors is something that has to be experienced to be understood. I’m just honored to be able to be a small part of helping to make that experience possible.” Bob Fudge, Evanhoe

*“There are many worthy charities out there, but never has our Quantrum team witnessed such a direct, long-lasting impact than when we began sponsoring the Blue Skies WWTR. It may seem trite to say we receive so much more than we give, but the opportunity to become a participating member of the Blue Skies family truly changes the heart of both giver and receiver.” Joanne Allswede, Quantrum

*“At the heart of Macalogic is a belief in community and supporting our nation. WWTR has given us the opportunity to showcase not only the best that the Miami Valley has to offer, but to join the strong community of this heart-centered organization that serves Purple Hearts and Gold Star families. We’ve made lasting, authentic connections that go to the core of our beliefs through supporting WWTR. Blue Skies goes beyond just Warrior Weekend every year, and it’s been both humbling and amazing to watch it grow to serve so many deserving veterans. We’re thrilled to be part of the WWTR FAMILY!” Teresa Macalooloy, Macalogic
